

3.2. Admissions procedures

Information regarding the application process is available via the TU Dublin website. The application will be assessed by the programme and all relevant information and transcripts must be included with applications. Applicants may be contacted by the Admissions Office or programme management for additional information or to arrange an interview if deemed necessary.